

MONACO WEEK FOR WASTE REDUCTION

3rd edition – 21 to 29 November 2021

Throughout the week

Visiting Monaco responsibly: the Tourist and Convention Authority invites visitors to discover or rediscover the Principality responsibly. Check out its tips on www.visitmonaco.com.

Collection of business attire for men and women (suits, shirts, ties, women's suits, accessories, etc.) for the charity Cravate Solidaire – the Columbus Monte-Carlo is being used as a collection point in Monaco.

Contact: Email: ufabre@columbus.mc / +377 92 05 82 42

Exhibition: “Plaidoyer pour la Terre” (“Advocating for the Earth”). Artist and painter Joséphine Dionisotti presents a series of paintings to educate and inform visitors about various environmental problems.

A digital exhibition at Stars'n'Bars and on Facebook: @SERDMonaco

“Monaco Fights Waste” video: Stars'n'Bars has created a 10-minute video aimed at 9–11 year olds which celebrates the many positive actions that the Principality of Monaco is taking to reduce, reuse and recycle waste.

Broadcast at Stars'n'Bars

Pop-up “Zero-waste Barista” space at the Oceanographic Museum, in partnership with CFM Indosuez Wealth, Monakoffé and several restaurants in the Principality. From Monday 22 to Friday 26 November, 11 am to 1.30 pm, visitors will be invited to enjoy an eco-friendly coffee break. A renowned chef from one of the Principality's restaurants will come along to share a “zero-waste” recipe.

Contact: s.gobbi@oceano.org / + 377 93 15 36 01

Monday 22 November

Meat-free day: come and taste some outstanding vegetarian dishes at the Columbus Monte-Carlo and check out videos of vegetarian and zero-waste recipes on their social media.

Bookings: tavolo@columbus.mc / +377 92 05 82 35

Instagram: @columbusmchotel @tavolomc / Facebook: @ColumbusMonteCarlo @tavolomc

Wednesday 24 November

Zero-waste treasure hunt! In partnership with Monaco City Hall, SMA and the Department of Urban Amenities are organising a treasure hunt on 24 November on the theme of reducing and recycling waste.

Contact : sma@sma.mc / +377 92 05 75 16

My zero-waste snack: the charity Ecopolis is offering you the chance to become a “zero-waste hero” through some simple changes to your snack habits. 2 pm–6 pm, Place d'Armes

Contact: ecopolis.mc@gmail.com

“Game of tri” for children aged 6–12 years old at Monaco's Oceanographic Museum.

A waste-sorting game will be set up at the entrance to the Museum. Children can complete a challenge to earn a “Super Sorter” certificate and free entrance to the Museum.

Contact: s.gobbi@oceano.org / +377 93 15 36 01

“Zero-waste Workshop”: Monaco City Hall and the Petits Ecoliers de Monaco charity will hold workshops for children aged 6–12 years old on reusing and customising T-shirts. There will also be a chance to make some liquid soap.

There will be three sessions, each for 10 children, held at 2 pm, 3 pm and 4 pm at Princess Antoinette Park.

For information and registration, call 06 80 86 41 52

“Tout sur ma Mer” (“All About My Sea”), a performance/lecture by eco-adventurer Anaëlle Marot Organised by the Department of the Environment, in partnership with Monaco City Hall.

The autobiographical tale of an adventurer who kayaked and cycled around the Mediterranean, completing 1,000 kilometres on her own. Appalled by the plastic she saw everywhere, she decided to go out and discover the sea and those who protect it. This is a story full of humour, a blend of cold facts (scientific data on the state of the sea, etc.) and more personal observations (feelings, anecdotes, etc.).

6.30 pm, Casa d’i Soci, 2bis Promenade Honoré II, Monaco.

Information and registration: environnement@gouv.mc / +377 98 98 83 41

Thursday 25 November

“Stop Fast Fashion” and “No Space for Waste” conference, organised by The Animal Fund and R4 Clothing UK.

A two-part virtual conference: learn about the damage to the planet caused by fast fashion and the opportunities for a new approach to sustainable fashion, then hear from some students who have changed their lifestyles to reduce their waste.

Information and registration: info@theanimalfund.net

6.30 pm–7.30 pm

Thursday 25 November and Friday 26 November

Collection of trainers, gloves, hats and scarves, organised by Monaco City Hall in aid of the charity Semeurs d’Espoir, which will distribute the items to those most in need.

1 Place d’Armes, at La Condamine Market, from 9 am to 12.30 pm

Contact: communication@mairie.mc

Saturday 27 November

Repairathon, organised by Monaco City Hall and the Mission for Energy Transition. With help from volunteer DIY enthusiasts, come and repair your items so that they’ll last longer!

1 Place d’Armes, at La Condamine Market, from 3.30 pm to 6.30 pm

Contact: communication@mairie.mc

“Game of tri” for children aged 6–12 years old at Monaco’s Oceanographic Museum.

A waste-sorting game will be set up at the entrance to the Museum. Children can complete a challenge to earn a “Super Sorter” certificate and free entrance to the Museum.

Contact: s.gobbi@oceano.org / +377 93 15 36 01

Compost education and awareness workshop: Monaco City Hall, in partnership with SMA, invites you to learn more about small-scale composting and how important it is, with explanations from the Princess Antoinette Park gardener.

10 am, Princess Antoinette Park

Registration required, contact jbonnin@mairie.mc